Matariki Celebration last Friday Thank you, thank you, thank you

Thank you to those who donated food, to those who helped out with preparing the hall, those who helped prepare the candles leading to the garden, the father who offered to cook all the sausages, the mother who offered to cook the scrambled eggs, the family who provided all crockery, cutlery and the bain marie, the staff members who prepared food, those cooking toast, serving, doing dishes, cleaning up, the amazing mother who took all the tea towels home and washed, dried and returned them before school closed at noon. To everyone who helped with packing down the hall. What great team work. To all the families who committed to getting up early to come to school for this celebration. To the staff, who after being some of the first people to arrive in the morning, then provided a fun morning of rotation activities, and being the last people to leave, exhausted. Your efforts have not gone unnoticed.

Thank you.
